SCHOOLS IN NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA,

FOR THE

Orphans of Confederate Soldiers.

REFERENCES:

"COLUMBIA, Oct. 19, 1866.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentlemen of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.

WADE HAMPTON."

"I concur with Gen. Hampton in commending the benevolent enterprise of Miss Buie to the favor and patronage of the generous, liberal and philanthropic. Her life thus far has been devoted to acts of kindness and charity, and she merits success in her undertaking.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,

BY WHICH

Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts,—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothschilds would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhœa, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, That you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ——, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Hope alone remained was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea, of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERED Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefitted by the use of these Bitters.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. H. PESCUD, } Editors.
SEATON GALES, }

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 19, 1867.

Mr. Sherman's Bill.

The brief notes of discussion on this bill on yesterday in the House, as furnished by the telegraph, enables us to understand it better.—It will be seen that violent Radicals oppose it, because it is too lenient—too partial to the President, recognizing the force of his amnesty proclamation, in that the bill only at first disfranchises those who have not been pardoned, yet provides for the ultimate adoption of the Howard amendment. Democrats and real Conservatives oppose it, because it violates the Constitution palpably, and makes war as Stevens' bill and all other propositions have proposed to do, upon an unarmed and unoffending people. Moderate Republicans favored it because it contains the Howard amendment, a most iniquitous and stealthy attempt to delude the States into the surrender of all control of their internal affairs, and places constitutionally in the power of Congress all the powers of legislation for the country, and the quasi right to force universal suffrage upon us.

Every proposition that has come from Congress, violates and nullifies its own professions and acts during the war, the acts, speeches and proclamations of Mr. Lincoln, and the Constitution with all the time honored interpretations of that instrument by the Supreme Court.

The dispatch received to-day, gives the gratifying intelligence, that the bill is defeated, and that the question must be adjourned over to the fortieth Congress. If God has not entirely given over the country to the control and utter ruin of the fiendish spirit of ultra abolitionism, radical as that body will be, we trust it will be led into safer and more consistent action. Time, the great teacher, may more fully disclose the purposes of the enemies of the government, both North and South, and lead the people to speak out in tones of thunder, against the destruction and overthrow of the government of the fathers of the Republic.

Politics.

Our people cannot but feel deeply anxious about the present condition of National affairs, and hence we have betowed some attention to the subject. But the public control is so completely in the hands of those who are totally indifferent to the early peace and prosperity of the South, and Southern necessities, sufferings or wants have so little influence upon them, that our people will perhaps do well in the future, to concern themselves less about any speculations which may be ventured upon, as to what Congress will do.

The news of course all are interested in, but as to the future, what is to be evolved by Federal legislation, except that it bodes no good to the South, is impenetrable and vexatiously perplexing to the brain of any one who would seek to pry into it. We have done what duty and patriotism required of us to aid the reconstruction and to seek reconciliation. It has all been in vain. Now we can but watch and wait, until those who have the power shall direct.

In the meantime, let our people drive the plow and look closely to their material interests. Congress will scarcely interdict our liberty to work and make bread and meat or to pay Federal taxes.

Bogus Advertisers.

Our cotemporary, the Newbern Commercial, has found out Haydock, the extensive advertiser of Magiell's pills, &c., and denounces him. We were satisfied months ago, that we should get nothing from him, and discontinued his advertisements. We observe that our cotemporaries are being deceived by other swindlers. Some continue to keep in Dr. Gardner's advertisements. He has paid some perhaps, and others partially, and others none at all, and hundreds of people have been deceived by him as he has deceived us. He has relieved the purses of a number of $50, and more in some cases, but we have seen but one gentleman who considers that he has been benefitted. The press should adopt it as a rule to advertise for no one, out of the State or in it, whom they do not know, or who has not a proper endorsation.

The simple fact that these imposters do not pay the printers, is a small matter. What we dislike most is, that we are made the instruments of imposition upon the public, and often to its damage. One of the latest plans by which they really make the press particeps criminis with them in their imposture, is the privilege which the press has granted to them, to insert their own statements either as special notices or in the editorial columns. This thing should be broken up entirely. Nothing should appear in our columns either in the editorial or special notice columns without the name of the advertiser. Our readers take for granted that what seems to have the editorial endorsement must be right, but we have allowed ourselves by this manœuvre of advertisers, to endorse what often proves to be false and palpably wrong. At the risk of blocking up our columns against this class of advertising entirely, we have resolved to make every advertiser responsible for his own statements, and confining editorial notices within proper bounds.

Moreover, we hope the press of the State will not allow the use of their columns to quackeries and doubtful remedies or anything else from beyond the limits of the State, at reduced rates upon pledges of large patronage. Our own people, if any are favored, should be the recipients of any deductions the press may be inclined to make, in preference to others.

LONG ARTICLES.—Our correspondents have burdened us with long articles. We are glad to accommodate them, but have done so at the risk of losing the good opinion of our readers. We beg our friends to continue their favors, but we suggest, if they want their articles read, they must learn to condense—condense.

The Legislature.

The Senate last night adopted the bill to establish a Penitentiary, after first adopting the amendment to submit the question to the people.

The proceedings of to-day were of no general interest, except the passage of the bill for the relief of maimed soldiers, which consumed some time.

In the House last night, the bill to establish the new County of Pamlico was reconsidered, and after a discussion it was indefinitely postponed.

To-day, the House amended and passed the Senate Homestead bill.

Also, the bill for the benefit of the Cheraw and Coalfields Railroad passed its third reading.

CROWDED OUT.—Quite a sharp and lengthy article on a personal matter from W. H. Crawford, Esq., one of the Commoners from Rowan, crowded out to-day, will appear to-morrow.

RECONSTRUCTION.—Our impression is, from what we hear around us, that the effort now being made to arrive at some harmonious action between the executive and legislative branches of the Government upon reconstruction matters receives sufficient encouragement from both sides to raise a hope of some practical results growing from it. It is to be regretted that the movement was not set on foot earlier in the session.—Star.

The Kansas Legislature has adopted an amendment striking out the words "white" and "male", from the Constitution of that State, and making intelligence the sole base of suffrage.

For the Sentinel.

The North Carolina Railroad.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The offensive and unprovoked attempt of General Barringer to throw more than suspicion upon my personal and political conduct, because of remarks made in the Stockholders meeting in December last, merits my contempt rather than resentment.

I wonder it should be so dull in Charlotte, with Dr. Jones and Governor Vance both in town. So dull that the General has to excite himself and try to excite the public mind, by publishing what he thinks of me politically.—I know he does it with the hope that I will retaliate, by publishing what I think of him. I shall not gratify him. I will not publish.—When the General in 1860-'61 turned Democrat and seceder, and again in 1865 turned Holden man, and again in 1866 turned Worth man, I formed my opinion of him; but I am not obliged to publish it to afford him and the public a foolish pleasure and gratification. I must flatly refuse the General's invitation or rather challenge to a personal newspaper altercation. It will be of no service to the public, and gentlemen are not apt to be pleased with such exercise and exhibition of themselves, though the people do enjoy it hugely.

Leaving the General to reflect at his leisure upon the necessity, utility or propriety of his personalities, I will proceed to notice that portion of his communication not personal. The General says I am in error as to the history of the Company, and I do the Stockholders great injustice. Again he says "Mr. Turner charges that the Stockholders some of whom were contractors swindled the State." He misses the mark. I charged no such thing. I did say the large Stockholders who paid their subscription stock in work instead of money, held their stock without having paid a dime for it.—There was no swindling charged. I meant to state what was well understood at the time the Road was graded,—that contractors were making their stock clear. I have been contradicted in this by an anonymous correspondent of the Sentinel, as well as by Gen. Barringer.—I always heard that Mr. Richard Ashe, Bennett Hazel, Esq., Mr. Paul C. Cameron, Mr. Giles Mebane, Turner and Jones, and others I could name, made their stock clear.

I never heard it denied until recently, that every contractor did not do the same. A large contractor recently told me, he not only made his stock but money besides. I now have reason to believe that a few contractors by reason of their bad management, did not make their stock clear.

But this question was before the Supreme Court in 1856. Chief Justice Pearson then did the Stockholders the same justice or "injustice" if you please, that I did. In the case of Ashe against Johnson's administrator, Judge Pearson in second Jones' Equity Reports said as follows:

"For the purpose of inducing individuals to subscribe for the amount of stock, necessary to secure the charter, the gentlemen, who felt the deepest interest in the success of the enterprise, and to whose exertions the North Carolina Rail road owes its existence, in their speeches and in conventions, which they procured to meet, held out the assurance that the company, when organized, would take care to relieve the subscribers of their stock, by requiring those who contracted to do work on the road, to take stock in payment of one half of the amount of the price of their work.

The Company, at its first meeting, instructed the directors to carry into effect the assurance which had been held out to the subscribers for stock—and, in the language of the Company, in its answer, "the substance of these resolutions, passed at different times and Conventions, was that in letting out the contracts, the contractors were to be required to take stock as far as it was practicable to get them to do so." In pursuance of these instructions, the President and directors, in the advertisements for letting out contracts, made this stipulation; the contractors receiving in payment on their contracts one half in stock of the road, the other half in cash.

He, the defendant, insists that it could not have been the intention of his intestate to take the stock of the plaintiff off of his hands at par, because, as he alleges, the stock was then greatly under par, and his intestate, not being a professional contractor, did not desire any greater contract than one estimated at double the value of his own stock.

It being a prevalent opinion at the time, that a contractor with a contract yielding double the amount of his subscription, might pay the expenses of the work from the money, and the stock was then not worth par, and no prudent man would have purchased it at that price; the rate of depression may be judged of from the fact, that the sub-contractors under Johnson allowed a discount of twenty-five per cent to obtain cash for the work.

The equity of the Plaintiff is an emanation or deduction from an obligation which was assumed by the gentlemen, who were most active in procuring individual subscriptions for stock, and which was afterwards carried into effect by the President and directors acting under the instructions of the individual Stockholders, and was by them according to the advertisment for contracts made one of the terms of the letting; that is to say, contractors were required to receive payment, one half in cash the other half in the stock of individual subscribers.

It is apparent that such an obligation or undertaking on the part of the individual subscribers, was in direct contravention of the rights of the State; inasmuch as the State was to furnish two-thirds of the funds for the construction of this Road, and although not then represented, was to contribute two-thirds of the Company's capital.

It was accordingly made a subject of anxious consideration by us, whether such an undertaking on the part of the individual Stockholders was not exposed to the objection of being against public policy, as tending to induce the officers of the Company to allow more to contractors than their work was worth in cash, in order to induce them to take individual stock in part payment, the result of which would necessarily bring into effect an agreement growing out of this understanding, or based upon it. After much reflection, we have come to the conclusion, that this objection to our entertaining the cause has been removed by the concurring acts of the Executive and Legislative departments of the government.

They have, from high considerations of public good, concurred in, approved of and ratified the acts of individual members of the Company, in regard to the undertaking, with full notice; and it is proper to say, that the matter was at all times openly avowed and justified upon the ground of public good prejudicial to the rights of the largest Stockholder.

The disclosure in the answer of the defendant, proves it was the prevalent opinion at that time, that the contractor, with his contract yielding double the amount of his subscription, might pay the expenses of the work from the money. In other words, might make his stock clear; that is, things were in such a condition that the State, as was supposed, would pay all the money required for the construction of the Road, and yet, individuals would own one-third of the stock. This disclosure, together with the further fact, that contractors who took one-half in stock were allowed such prices as to enable them to let out sub-contracts, to be paid in cash at a deduction of 25 per cent, is really startling.

If the original undertaking was against public policy, of course this court could not in any way aid in carrying it out. The executive officers have caused the subscription on the part of the State to be paid, and the Legislature at its last session, appropriated one other million of dollars, to aid in the completion of a work which they deemed so important to the interest of the State."

Thus Judge Pearson settles one question in dispute between the General and myself, settles it too upon sworn testimony, and more, I doubt not, to the General's conviction than his satisfaction. Let the General answer the Chief Justice. If the General answers the Chief Justice, I suggest brevity. I would commend to him the policy of his Dutch ancestors, who, in their Spice Islands, cut down half their spice trees to improve the value of the other half, by producing scarcity and doubling prices. I would fain call the General's attention to his memorial, in which he pretends that the disasters of the Company are owing to dissension and division between the Stockholders and the State. I repeat, since the first election of Colonel Fisher, (except one year of Mr. Boyden's administration) there has been entire harmony between the State Directors and the Directors on the part of the Stockholders. Even in Mr. Boyden's administration there was no protest or remonstrance or objection to his projects, plans and expenditures. The Stockholders, through their Directors, Thomas Webb, C. P. Mendenhall, D. A. Davis and John L. Morehead, if not quietly concurring, never remonstrating against any act of Mr. Boyden's administration. These gentlemen are large Stockholders. I say it to their credit, they have devoted more time and attention to the road than all the large Stockholders owning above 20 shares, put together, and into whose hands the General proposes to commit the future destinies of the road. These four gentlemen are as much responsible for Mr. Boyden's extravagant administration as General Leach and the State Directors. They did nothing to encourage it, and they did nothing to prevent it. Neither they nor the State Directors knew of it until it was all over and too late to apply the remedy. So it has been with all Directors in this and in all roads, and so it will continue to be. The President and Superintendent run the road, and not Directors.

The General, No. 1, charges me with "making a lame apology for Mr. Boyden." I said Mr. Boyden had spent without paying the interest on our debt, one million three hundred thousand dollars. I said he took the Presidency without desiring it, and promised us he would not give his whole attention to the affairs of the road. I said he left the Presidency informing us he had kept his promise. Mistaking this sarcasm for an apology, is well calculated to give the public an humble opinion of the General's capacity and powers of discrimination.

The General, No. 3, honors with his notice only two thirds of the present Board of Directors. He only names the State Directors. Let me inform him, the board consists of twelve members, and that Messrs. Mordecai, Webb, Morehead and Davis, "large Stockholders," are entitled to the honor of his notice as much as the State Directors. They are as much addicted to "paying claims and granting favors" as others of the Board. In fact when the Board, to use the General's language, "at last resolved to modify the negro hire order," they did it without the aid of either of these gentlemen. I would give the amount of Stock each of these gentlemen own, but it would not add to their capacity, fidelity or fitness for their place, except in the General's estimation.

I fear, since the General's mistake of sarcasm for apology, he has misread the old aphorism, "worth makes the man, want of it the fellow," by reading, money makes the man and want of it the fellow. I verily believe if the General's 30 shares of stock "thrown upon him by the result of the war," were thrown upon these four gentlemen, individually or collectively, it would add nothing to their capacity for Rail Road management.

The General, No. 3, says:

"There is little or no reform, and the money continues to flow like water." Why did you not inform the Stockholders and Directors of it? "The trains and stations," says the General, "are often the scenes of rowdyism and obscenity, disgraceful to the age and country." I am at the first of this; I never witnessed or heard of disorder on the trains or at the depots. Until better informed, I can only blame a large Stockholder, who knowing these indecencies, has failed to report them to the Board. I suggest to the memorialists that they amend their memorial and ask the Legislature, to forbid the General's voting in the Stockholder's meeting, by way of punishment for not informing the Board. I would not, however, ask the Legislature to act on the amended memorial. I may add, it would be as improper for that body to do so, as it would be for them to forbid the Stockholders electing a Director unless he owned twenty shares of stock. There is no impropriety in the memorialists asking for this, for it would not hurt the complexion of the memorial to add this additional, but ugly feature to its face.

"As to fare and freights the whole sytem is a jumble of confusion, of favoritism, fraud or folly."

This may be so as to the "confusion and folly," but we have our doubts as to the "favoritism and fraud." If true, it is an argument against the large stockholders, who controlled in Governor Morehead's, and Col. Fisher's administrations. The basis of charges and tariff's were made in the early days of the Company, and they have undergone no great change since. I cannot think either of these gentlemen established "fairs and freights" in "fraud or favoritism." If Messrs. Camerou and Webb, the favorites of the large stockholders, have continued these "fares and freights," I submit to the General, that folly, not fraud, expresses both his meaning and his indignation.

"Freights are high. The secret is about one-half the travel, and a large proportion of the freights and telegraphs are free."

If I imitated the General, in his offensive personalities in No. 1, I would call this a "reckless assertion." If the General can prove what he says, I would not give much for Mr. Webb's high character as an honest man. "Half the travel, and a large proportion of the freights and telegrams," could not be free without the guilty knowledge of the President.

I ask pardon of Mr. Webb for the supposition. Suppose it be true. It only goes to condemn the General's plan, the large stockholders and the memorial; for Mr. Webb is the special favorite and choice of the "large stockholders." If they did not make him director he could not be President.

I suggest to the General, foregoing personalities to vindicate his memorial if he can, in No. 4, reconcile its contradictions, explain its nonsense and enormities. Do this, or in No. 5 ask forgiveness of 664 brother stockholders in the Company, whom you propose to outlaw and rob of their just weight and influence in the corporation.

The State is the large stockholder owning three million three hundred thousand—to one million on the part of individuals. The State has eight Directors—individuals four. This is according to the original contract. Now you propose to give the State three Directors and individuals six. Why give the State any? She would be as powerless as if she had one or none. With regard to the example of South Carolina I may here say that State "does not own two thirds of her roads." You memorialize the Legislature to forbid the individual stockholders, electing any person Director who does not own twenty shares of stock. This is in violation of the constitution, and every law of honor and good faith which should bind man and man in business transactions. There are 776 stockholders, only 112 own above 20 shares of stock.

You wish to make a victim of the large Stockholder, because he is too large, and of 664 Private Stockholders because they are too small. The Legislature may make a victim of the State—that is a matter for that body and their constituents, but if they venture thus to invade the legal rights of 664 citizens, by depriving them of the just control of their property, they will appeal to Chief Justice Pearson and the Court, failing in that, they promise the General not peaceably to secede from the corporation.

If I understand the General in No. 2, he proposes to run the Road with directors.

What road is run by directors? I never knew directors to run a road. They don't run the Raleigh & Gaston Road. Dr. Hawkins is as supreme there as Col. Fisher, Mr. Cameron, Mr. Webb, or Mr. Boyden, on our road. I can hear only of Mr. Johnson on the S. C. Road. If a Rail Road is well managed, the President gets all the credit for it. If it is badly managed, he must take discredit. No man except the General ever heard of runing a road by directors,—holding them responsible instead of the President.

Mr. Calhoun, wanted what he called a "dual Presidency," of the United States—a double headed government, one President from the North and one from the South, both to approve and sign laws. The General's running the North Carolina Rail Road with nine Directors responsible instead of the President, is an improvement on the Calhoun theory of "Dual Presidency." I must now conclude, lest your readers condemn me, for imitating the General instead of the Spice Island Dutch.

J. BROWN,
Feb 15-163-tf With HART & LEWIS.

THE SENTINEL.

Tuesday Evening, Feb. 19, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston, offer instruction books and music.

E. J. Erwin, Clerk of Burke Court of Equity, will offer for sale, the 2nd of April, at Morganton, a large tract of land, between 5,000 and 10,000 acres.

J. Brown, with Hart & Lewis, opens the Spring Trade of 1867 with a fine lot of cooking stoves.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, offer large stocks of materials for coachmakers and saddlers.

SUNDAY TRADE.—It is not a little mortifying to record, that Sunday trading exists among our merchants. Much credit is due the Mayor and police for the detection of a number, both Jews and Gentiles, for the violation of the ordinance forbidding traffic and trade on the Sabbath in this Christian City, on last Sunday.—Many of the colored soldiers were paid off on Saturday, and the temptation was too great to traders. A large amount, we learn, was sold to them chiefly. The Mayor enforced the law promptly, and fined every violation, but we fear he did not go deep enough to prevent a recurrence. Ten dollars was too small a sum for so grave a violation of the order of the City. We hope if it be repeated he will put his coulter deeper, and fine to the full extent of his powers. We cannot think, with a city contemporary, that there was any apology or extenuation for the offence. For our Christian merchants, at least, there can be no excuse, whatever may be said in extenuation of Israelitish citizens, who do not recognize the Christian Sabbath, yet, living in a Christian City, we hope to see them conform hereafter to the requirements of law, as they have generally done, exhibiting in their general deportment as strong evidences of their good citizenship as any of our population. We will not publish the names of the offenders, as so far as we know this is the first offence, and we hope it will be the last.

FOUL MURDER.—The sharp crack of pistols and the falling of a man on Wilmington Street, near the store of L. W. Peck, Esq., early last evening, drew a large crowd in that direction, when it was ascertained that a colored man named William Mayo, had been killed directly by some one with a pistol shot, the shot entering the left breast. The Coroner, W. R. Crawford, held an inquest. The facts elicited, we understand, fixed the killing upon Peter Lane, a well known colored man of this city. Mayo's wife is a sister of Lane. It appears that Mayo had been at work on the Railroad, at Cedar Creek Bridge, and had just been paid off, which is supposed to have been known to Lane and a man named Mitchell. This man Wm. Henry Mitchell, (colored) was arrested this morning.—He testifies that he had hold of Mayo when Lane shot him. But it appears that Mitchell last night, after the killing, had deposited with his father-in-law, Mark Anderson, a well known free negro, the pocket-book of Mayo, containing $78. The suspicion, therefore, is that both Mitchell and Lane first robbed Mayo and then Lane shot him. Lane has made his escape, but every effort will be made to arrest him. Lane is a well-built man, of strong muscular frame, shrewd, sensible, quite bright, but hair real negro, loves liquor, a great talker and a blacksmith by trade, but has recently been omnibus driver and hotel waiter.

N. C. ROAD.—To day we publish a rather caustic reply of Hon. J. Turner, jr., to Gen. Barringer on the North Carolina Railroad question. We take no part in this controversy, but hope that great good to the Railroad may come of it. In a day or two, we shall publish a reply of Gen. Gwynn to one of the charges of Mr Turner, which the General prepared as soon as Mr. T's speech appeared, but which he withheld, hoping that others would meet the point directly; but as this has not been done fully, he claims to be heard. We shall be glad if all concerned will feel, that the matter has been fully ventilated after the appearance of Gen. Gwynn's article.

The first number of the Independant Press, to be published at Concord, was laid upon our table to-day. It is very neat in appearance and is well filled. We hope the proprietors will be encouraged.

ANTI EMIGRATION.—The colored people of Charlotte have formed an anti-emigration society to prevent, as far as possible, the emigration of colored people from this State. They insist that North Carolina colored citizens should remain at home to develope the resources of their own State. We hope that those who intend to improve their own fortunes and the fortunes of the State by upright, industrious and peaceable lives, will take their counsel. North Carolina needs all the industrious, sober and skillful labor she can possibly get, and all prefer that that portion of our colored population should remain.

The indolent, noisy, brawling class, who will not work, but spend their time in political discussions and mischievous reflections upon the whites, and who countenance and sustain the enemies of their old and true friends, can no doubt find a better home than North Carolina. Were they to emigrate North or South, they might possibly be induced to go to work.

Congress---Sherman's Substitute in the House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.

In the House a joint resolution of the Utah Legislature was presented, praying a repeal of the Territorial law punishing polygamy.

A bill for suffrage, regardless of sex was tabled after an hour's debate.

A resolution that the President be only empowered to pardon on conviction, and that pardons heretofore granted are null, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The District Committee was instructed to report a bill prohibiting the sale of liquor in the District of Columbia.

A motion contemplating the withdrawal of national Bank currency was tabled.

Sherman's substitute was considered.

Mr. Stevens moved the non-concurrence of the House, and asked a committee of conference.

Mr. Boutwell spoke in opposition to the substitute. He complained that it gave more power to the President and the rebel factions in reconstruction. We ought to remove from the reconstruction business in South Carolina the Orr's, the Pickens' and McGrath's. It leaves the work open to any one who may choose to engage in it, and we entrust rebels with the work of reconstruction, of which we are afraid they are incapable.

Mr. Stokes opposed it because he said that universal suffrage and universal amnesty was it. He did not understand language if it did not enfranchise every rebel in the South. He preferred the defeat of the Congressional reconstruction measures to this bill.

Mr. Stevens took ground that the bill usurped the power of the future Congress, and afterwards ventilated his usual bitterness against the President and the Southern people.

Mr. Blaine favored the bill, contending that it gave no more rights than Congress gave the Tennessee rebels.

Mr. Wilson of Iowa sustained the bill.

Mr. Bingham made a bitter hit at Stevens, showing that there was not a single feature in the bill which had not, at one time or another, been favored by the Reconstruction committee. Mr. Schenk, of Ohio, favored the bill as the only thing possible.

After further amendment, Mr. Blaine demanded the previous question, which was seconded, by a vote of 78 to 63. A motion that the whole subject be tabled was negatived by a vote of 118 to 40.

In the Senate, Mr. Sumner presented a memorial of the Pennsylvanian Peace Society, urging the establishment of an international tribunal to which the national differences be referred.

The bill extending the time for appeals on writs of error from the excluded States passed.

Mr. Sumner made an ineffectual effort to disinter Elliott's bill.

The diplomatic appropriation bill was taken up, and amended so as to pay Mr. Harvey, the Portugal minister.

Sherman's Bill Defeated.---Matter dead this Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.

In the House the vote to concur in the adoption of Sherman's substitute, was defeated by a vote of 98 to 73. A Committee of Conference appointed. The whole matter dead for this session.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

Markets and Financial.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.

Gold 136¾. Cotton dull at 32¼a33.

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 19.

Cotton market quiet and unchanged. Sales 8000 bales, middling uplands 14d.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.

Prof. Bache is dead.

The conference committee on the feature of office bill has agreed to include cabinet officers.

Mr. Salisbury's speech denunciatory of Seward creates much talk.

The Southern Loyalists association has adopted a resolution opposing Sherman's substitute.

The Senate struck out the clause in the West Point appropriation bill forbidding appointments from the Southern States.

The Democrats and extremists voted against concurring in Sherman's substitute. Lovell and Rousseau voted to concur.

Unless both Houses act before midnight to night, a pocket Veto follows. Both the New York Tribune and Washington Chronicle favor concurrence, but Stevens was too strong. No action is now probable until after the Connecticut elections which occurs on March 10. If that still goes radical, harsh measures are certain.

By the Cable---Fenians.

LONDON, Feb. 19.

None of the armed Fenians in Kery county have been captured, but have all disappeared. The Irish peasantry are perfectly willing to give intelligence, but object in assisting to arrest their countrymen. Three British ships of war are in Kenmore river, to aid the people, and for service, if needed.

Earl Derby first Lord of the Treasury says officially that the alarm has passed, and all the peasants are loyal. The government will treat the prisoners justly. The Irish Secretary Lord Nors says no new rising of Fenians is apprehended. Only one hundred and twenty are engaged in revolt. Notwithstanding these denials the government is still sending troops to Ireland.

Evacuation of Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 19.

The complete evacuation of the city of Mexico occurred on the Sixth.

The Norfolk Virginian says the Peruvian cast off from her wharf on Friday amid the cheers of the assembled multitude. She sailed for Liverpool direct, on Saturday, taking out 1,600 bales of cotton, 8,000 bushels of corn 70 bags of peanuts, 40 boxes manufactured and 10 barrels leaf tobacco.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRAted Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RATCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is exclusively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and so solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of

and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent C emists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 Parts Consist of
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	36.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 5-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 5-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time. It is under the direction of a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia
MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of
STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army.

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on 1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
